THEME I: Contextual theology for faith and social action

SVISION: Sustainable existence for a world people can live in AND peaceful coexistence for a world people can live in together

\hookrightarrow GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Socially engaged faith-based actors supported in the translation of theology into action and churches and other local faith communities' initiatives to take part in and contribute to society strength ened. Support places which enable groups of people to reflect.

(-) GLOBAL OUTCOME

Contextual and public theology development and language provides answers to needs, hopes and voices of people in local con texts and motivate them to take action

Pathway

\ominus GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Theological centres and faithbased actors are catalysts in their societies, enhancing contextual the ological reflections and faith-inspired social action, strengthen ing spiritual connectedness and guarding the rights of people to meet and work together

GLOBAL OUTCOME

1.1 Theological centers and hubs have formed links to social and religious actors who are motivated by theological reflection to engage in social action in communities.

\ominus GLOBAL OUTCOME

Pathway Local civil society actors strengthened and their joint action with other change agents (civil so ciety, faith-based organisations and individuals) promoted - for social justice, active citizenship and community building.

(-)

Safe-spaces and networks for community change agents across religious, ethnic, social, profesional, and other groups established and facilitated.

Danmission - Strategic Partnership - 2022-2025 * Global Theory of Change

GLOBAL OUTCOME

(-) GLOBAL OUTCOME

Pathway Freedom of thought, conscience religion, or belief for people promot ed - including the ability to publicly practice one's spirituality and religion, and to assemble and act together. Promoting a free space to engage in active civil society.

GLOBAL OUTCOME

1.2 Citizens and civil society actors including faith actors are empowered to promote freedom of religion and belief, assembly and asso ciation, (and) contributing to a more democratic and inclusive society freedom of religion and belief assembly and association through democratic and inclusive formation

THEME II: Dialogue and peacebuilding

SVISION: Sustainable existence for a world people can live in AND peaceful coexistence for a world people can live in together

\ominus

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Inter- and intrafaith, intercultural and interethnic relations and net works for people who value and promote human interconnectedness, community building, prevention and resolution of conflicts

\ominus

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Local actors convene transformative intercultural, inter- and intrafaith dialogue between religious leaders and others across reli gious and cultural divides

(-)

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Local actors in community-based peacebuilding have identified and analysed conflict drivers and structural issues and are setting up sustainable structures to promote social

\leftarrow

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Support interfaith diapraxis and common social action - faith-based engagement and action for peace coexistence, poverty alleviation nature preservation, justice and the common good across religious divides

GLOBAL OUTCOME

2.1 Civil society actors, particu larly faith-based and youth actors, are engaged in creating a more social cohesive and dialogical society through interfaith and intercultural dialogue and action.

\hookrightarrow

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Innovative peacebuilding approaches and partnerships in order to prevent, mitigate, resolve and recon cile are promoted (including qualita tive work with few targeted individuals, and quantitative work media, social media, and technology, including PeaceTech).

(-)

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Support psycho-social endeavours related to people suffering from conflicts and their effects.

\ominus

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway Support traditional and religious peacemakers, across divides, in their prevention, mediation and reconciliation efforts, convene cooperation among all types of actors, at both local, regional and national level.

GLOBAL OUTCOME

2.2 Civil society, particularly faithbased, actors are empowered to en gage in faith-based peacebuild ing, mediation and conflict

actors contribute to more peaceful

(-)

GLOBAL OUTCOME Pathway

Support local actors to take action to prevent communal violence, extremism, derogative narratives scapegoating and hate speech in communities and in media and new technology

ASSUMPTION

Danmission and partners

are able to attract a sufficiently significant body of like-minded stakeholders across religious, ethnic, gender, generational, etc. divides - to appear as legitimate proponents of conflict mediation and prevention.

ASSUMPTION

Danmission partners have sufficient authority and reputation to invite to dialogue and involve divisive actors who practice hate speech and derogative narratives.

ASSUMPTION

Local peace actors have the required resilence and community support to withstand differnt divideand-rule interests and practices.